Investment Objective

Obtaining a long-term favorable and optimal investment returns, but still providing an adequate income through investments in Sharia Equity-Based Securities issued by any corporations, and sold in a Public Offering and/or traded in any Stock Exchanges, both onshore of offshore, and other Sharia Securities in accordance with Sharia Principles in the Capital Market.

Fund Manager's Comment

Risk-off is back. Equities slide on the Fed's persistent hawkish stance. The MSCI Asia Pacific Islamic ex Japan Index (MIAPJ) plunged by 6.8%. Taiwan and Philippines equities led while Australia, South Korea and Hong Kong stocks dragged. All sectors recorded negative returns, but Materials, IT, and Real Estate were badly hit due to rising yields and rebound in USD index. Top Leaders included Kia Corp, Innolux Corp, and E Ink Holdings. On the other hand, BHP Group Ltd, Samsung Electronics and Adani Total Gas were among the laggards. This was the volatility we have communicated before as market had been exuberant on Fed rate pivot while inflation has been stickier than expected. However for the long term prospect we are still positive on Asia outlook.
